Enid, O. T., Dec. 3.-Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock a freight train on the passed a farmer working in a field within hailing distance. A brakeman yelled to him that there was a dead man along side of the track below, pointing south. The farmer immediately left his team and walked down the track a short distance, where he came upon the body of a man lying upon the west side of the track. Both legs of the deceased had been cut off and the body otherwise showed that

The body was found about two and a half miles north of Waukomis. The in Pottawatomic county and should the farmer went on to Waukomis and phoned to Sheriff Kershaw the circumstances. The sheriff in company with W. H. Ryan, the manager of the Penlman undertaking establishment, immediately departed for the place where the corpse was found

In the mean time, however, a justice of the peace at Waukomis, hearing of the death, empaneled a coroner's jury which brought to this city last evening.
